OMAHA GIVES PRESIDENT WILDEST WELCOME

Republicans and Democrats Alike Join in Parade for Wilson, while Whole Town Turns Out and Cheers Him.

PEACE, WAR AND BUSINESS DISCUSSED

History, He Says, Will Point to Present as Day of Unshackling Business—U. S. and Peace Analyzed.

(By Review Leased Wire)
OMAHA, Oct. 5.—President Wilson discussed the European war, peace and American business in three speeches here today. He declared America as ready to fight as any nation in the world, but that its cause must be just. After the war, he said, this nation must join in a league of nations to preserve the peace of the world.

Is Wildly Cheered.
The President was cheered during the day by great crowds. Attracted here for the celebration of Nebraska's fiftieth anniversary, thousands of people from nearby cities and states packed Omaha's streets and shouted enthusiastically every time Mr. Wilson appeared. The President and his political advisors were apparently well pleased with their reception.

Republicans in Line.
Omaha was in gala attire for the day. The celebration was non-partisan in character and arranged by a commission made up largely of Republicans.

Three Speeches.
The President was received by a roar of cheering from the assemblage which packed the Omaha Auditorium tonight.

For several minutes there were such calls as "Who kept us out of war—Wilson." "Who prevented the strike—Wilson." "Who saved the nation—Wilson."

Governor Morehead of Nebraska introduced the President.

The President was interrupted by applause and shouts of "we thank you."

Why We're at Peace.
The causes of the European war, he said, are not plainly known.

"But Europe should understand us," he said. "We are holding off because when we use the forces of this nation we want to know what we are using it for."

Plenty of Fight in U. S.
"There is as much fight in America as in any nation in the world."

"We want always to hold the forces of America to fight for the rights of mankind, not for the rights of property. But in fighting for these things we should know what the touchstone is. We must have absolute allegiance to America. We must be truly American. The rights of humanity are the essence of freedom."

The Cause of War.
"We want all the world to know that we are ready to use all our force to maintain peace among mankind. The starting of wars can never again be the private concern of any one nation. We must use all our forces, moral and physical to uphold a league of nations, to uphold the peace of this world."

The President declared there was no question of fighting over petty things. He discussed the address of Washington on entangling alliances, saying he did not believe Washington meant the United States should not come into contact with the world.

Business Turned Free.
President Wilson in his afternoon speech here, declares the "real business of legislation is to release the forces of America's business and to see to it that impediments new or old shall not be placed in its way." He referred to the federal reserve act as "unshackling" business.

"Some of these days, gentlemen, when the great tides of business are running free in this country, you will look back upon the last three years and say: 'That was when the channels were dug for this great time.' As compared with the verdict of the next Presents New Angle to Mexican Difficulty, Deplores the Method of Treatment; Discusses Tariff After War.

(By Review Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Denunciation of the foreign policies and the tariff and national defense measures of the Democratic administration and a plea for an awakening of the "spirit that bore our fathers in the struggle," marked a political speech delivered here tonight at Carnegie Hall by Elihu Root. He said in part:

"We are told that Mr. Wilson has kept the country out of war. So has every president for seventy-eight years except Lincoln and McKinley. Never since Columbus sighted San Salvador has there been a time when it has been so easy for America to keep out of war by doing nothing. No country has been willing to incur even our passive hostility and throws to her enemies the benefits of our material and moral support."

Danger After War.

"Our danger is later when peace has been made and the great armies are free and rulers and governments look about for ways to repair their losses. Then will come the pressure of keeping back by force in these continents where the wealth of the world is concentrating. Then must be determined whether the Monroe Doctrine is to be surrendered as an idle boast."

"Peace is not maintained by the surrender of just results, for the presumption of impunity begotten by weak submission to aggression breeds still further aggression. Peace is maintained by the assertion of just rights, dispassionately accompanied by knowledge of power behind the assertion."

Wilson's Three "Failures."

"The Wilson administration has failed in three facts of importance and has showed itself incompetent. That is the judgment of the world. The three are the murder of our citizens on the Lusitania, the preparation of military and naval forces for national defense and the failure in Mexico."

Of the Mexican situation Mr. Root said:

"Proclaiming impartiality and respect for the rights of Mexico President Wilson interfered in the civil controversy in Mexico and finally intervened by force of arms and destroyed one party and aided the other party and overthrew Huerta and set up Carranza and Villa in the seat of government. He has maintained with such skill that no man in Mexico dares call himself our friend."

"The question of the American people is: 'Are they willing to have their vital affairs during the next four years conducted in the same way the Mexican business has been conducted?'"

The Tariff.

The speaker then turned to the tariff saying:

"Our market has always been attractive to European producers. It will be far more attractive after the war. We must protect ourselves or we shall become the dumping ground

"You Ought to Be Out Raising Hell" Admonishes Agitator, and They Do—Nine Rioters Are Captured.

(By Review Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Conspiracy to assassinate Theo. P. Shonts, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit company, and Frank Hedley, general manager of the same corporation, will be charged against two men who are detained at police headquarters, the police announced late tonight.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Spurred on by the exhortations of "Mother" Jones, 200 men and women relatives of striking street car men battled with the police late this afternoon in the most serious riot since the walkout on the traction lines a month ago. Nightsticks were swung right and left by the police, and many of the women were bruised. Scores of the rioters carried babies in their arms.

MOB DISPERSED.
A crowd of strikers entered the fray on the side of the women and was driving back the few patrolmen on the scene when an ambulance load of police reinforcements arrived. The reserves plunged into the midst of the struggling mob and wielded their clubs without mercy. When the rioters finally fled they left nine prisoners—six women and three men—in the hands of the police.

Tells 'Em to 'Raise Hell.'
The trouble began when the women poured out of the hall where "Mother" Jones had exhorted them to "get the scabs" of the cars.

You are too sentimental," she cried. "Staying at home thinking of dress and trinkets when you ought to be out raising hell."

Follow Her Advice.
Trooping into the street, the women hooted and jeered at cross town cars in 86th street. Suddenly a chunk of asphalt was hurled through the window of a car halted by a large automobile truck. This seemed the signal for a general attack on the car and in less than a minute every window was shattered. A patrolman who was on

Great Cunard Steamship Is Torpedoed and Sunk By "Sub" In Mediterranean

(By Review Leased Wire)

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The admiralty announces that the Cunard steamer Franconia, employed for transport duty, was sunk in the Mediterranean yesterday by an enemy submarine. The steamer had no troops aboard. Twelve men of the crew of 402 are missing.

Was 18,500 Ton Ship

According to the latest available reports the Franconia was a vessel of 18,500 tons gross and was built in 1910. Her maiden voyage was between Liverpool and Boston in February, 1911.

The Franconia was 425 feet long, 72 feet wide and displaced 25,000 tons.

When she was built she was considered one of the most comfortable steamers of the Cunard line. A striking feature of the saloon appointments was the absence of stairways on the boat deck which was devoted to a promenade room, a library, a gymnasium and a lounge and smoking room.

The vessel was nicknamed the "bath ship" inasmuch as she had more bathrooms and showers than the Mauritania. The stowage of the Franconia was considered the best appointed of any steamer carrying third class passengers. The old idea of stowage compartments had been eliminated and state rooms, capable of accommodating four, six and eight persons, had been installed.

have his friends, and they would be disgraced if they did not applaud and uphold that friendship.

"I think the Governor has been sincere in his activity along the lines of his aiding the workingman. The trouble is that his excellency does this at the expense of somebody else."

"Did you ever hear of George Hunt employing a miner when he was yet a private citizen and in business?" asked Campbell. "I have been informed, and the statement has never been contradicted, that he never did until he became Governor. Then somebody else pays the bill."

"Since my advent into business in the state of Arizona I have sought to be an employer, a man who gives work to those who will appreciate it and who will reciprocate with the friendship and their honest effort. I have given men work, I am still doing so. I am not giving them Hot Air."

Declaring that the present administration has but two policies and adding that one of them was but a fad, he took occasion to comment on Prison Reform—the fad. He said that the Governor of the state had been

Red Sox and Superbas Take Things Easy Despite High Nervous Tension—Pitchers Not Yet Announced.

(By Review Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for President, has made a request for a box seat at the first world's series baseball game to be played in Brooklyn on Oct. 6. The Brooklyn club management has granted the request and a box back of third base was set aside for Mr. Hughes and his party. It is expected that the candidate will throw out the first ball.

Thousands in Line
Boston, Oct. 5.—Seekers of reserved seats took on the appearance of a bleacher crowd today in the scramble for reservations for the world's series baseball games which begins here Saturday. Women and staid business men vied with messenger boys and others in their effort to gain prominent places in the line.

Police On The Jump
No actual disorder developed but the police were called upon to reform lines, and club employees endeavored to placate disappointed applicants who clamored for answers to their written requests for seats.

The rush for reservations was a result of a new system, made necessary this year, President J. J. Lannin of the Boston Americans explained, because of the late date at which the American league decision was decided. The applicants were assigned a number calling for tickets of a certain class, without a definite designation of the seats as in other years. Those first in line obtained the better seats as they were distributed by the ticket sellers, and it was to obtain these that applicants sought the leading places in the lines.

Dead Heads Denied
In all probability, club officials agree, more persons have been disappointed through failure to receive tickets this year than ever before. Hundreds of requests have been refused.

Scalpers Active
The police patrol of the ticket lines is rigorous, and those soliciting or selling tickets are first warned away and then arrested if they persist. One arrest was made today. Private detectives are said to be in touch with the distribution of large blocks of seats furnished to municipal officials, the police and fire departments, and various public service companies, to be certain that none of these blocks is turned to private profit.

Because of their delay in obtaining world's series tickets, some of the players missed a train for Worcester, where part of the team played an exhibition game with the Philadelphia Americans. Others delayed their appearance for practice at Braves Field for the same reason.

Players Are Ready
The session at Braves Field, which Manager Carrigan directed, was a limbering up affair in which the men took it easy.

Two Aged Pastors Caught on Fifth Floor Are Literally Incinerated; Five Firemen are Hurled to Death.

MANY MORE FIRE FIGHTERS INJURED

Over Hundred Students and Faculty at Breakfast, March Out of Blazing Building in Safety.

(By Review Leased Wire)

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5.—Nine men are known to have perished as the result of a fire that destroyed the central portion of the main building of Christian Brothers College here today. Two of the known dead were aged members of the Christian Brothers order. They were trapped in the infirmary on the fifth floor.

Hurled To Death

Five known to be dead were firemen who were carried to the basement from the third floor when a wall collapsed. At least 12 firemen were carried down in the wreckage. Seven of them were taken out alive, badly hurt.

Another death was that of a nurse. Known dead are: Rev. Brother Cromac, aged 93. Rev. Brother Clement, aged 72. Louis Nolan, infirmity nurse, home in Morrisonville, Illa. The remainder were firemen and a watchman.

Fire Drill Saves 135

The fire was discovered by the registrar of the college, Brother Abban, on the fifth floor. He turned in an alarm, and hurried to the dining hall in the basement where 105 students and 30 members of the faculty were at breakfast. He told Brother James of the fire and the latter, giving the fire drill signal, ordered the students and faculty to march out of the building. The students did not know the building was burning until they reached the campus.

Several brothers remained behind and carried out the sacred vessels and the priestly vestments from the college chapel.

Loss Is $300,000
The loss is estimated at more than $300,000.

Two wings of the building were saved. The wireless apparatus on the roof, one of the most complete in America, was carried down when the roof fell. The natural history museum was destroyed.

The college will resume regular class work Friday in temporary quarters which have been offered the Christian Brothers by the trustees of Washington University. Friday a meeting of friends of the college will be held to devise means for the reconstruction of the college building.

Bankers Come To Aid

W. J. Wadall, banker, arrived on the campus while the college was burning and offered to assume the responsibility of housing the boarding students until they could return to their homes.

California Tests Law Denying Japs Right to Own Land

RIVERSIDE, Calif., Oct. 5.—Suit to evict the home of Yukioji Harada, a Japanese, the first of its kind filed with the intent to test the constitutionality of the California anti-alien land ownership law of 1913, was filed here today by former Judge Robert M. Clark, assistant attorney general. Three minor children of Harada were added as defendants although they were native born and consequently American citizens.

Harada bought the house, a cottage in a strictly American residential district several months ago, as guardian of the three children.
